Meagan Abaya

Email: abaya-m@webmail.uwinnipeg.ca | Phone: (204) 914-6737

Professional Summary

I am an Economics and Finance graduate student with experience in invoicing, payroll administration, data review, and client support. Ability to analyze information accurately, manage sensitive records, and take initiative in roles requiring trust and attention to detail.

Core Skills

- Data Analysis
- Attention to Detail & Compliance
- Professional Communication
- Time Management & Organization

Education

University of Winnipeg
Bachelor of Arts, Economics and Finance
September 2021 – June 2026

University of Winnipeg
Masters in Applied Economics
September 2026 – Present

Professional Experience

TutorBright Prairies August 2022 – Present

Tutor

- Provide academic support to students across multiple grade levels and subjects
- Adapt teaching strategies based on individual learning needs and goals
- Mentor students to build confidence, accountability, and academic success

University of Winnipeg September 2025 – April 2026

University Marker

- Evaluate academic work using standardized grading criteria
- Apply consistent judgment and attention to detail across a high volume of submissions
- Provide clear, constructive written feedback
- Collaborate with faculty to uphold academic and professional standards

University of Winnipeg & (PrairiesCan) January 2026 – April 2026

Practicum Student

- Research focuses on increasing defense procurement and the economic impacts on Manitoba
- Data review, analyst, organization, and documentation
- Exposure to government operations and analytical processes